

Jessica Arakgi, CIM, CFP, CLU, CHS, FEA

Wealth Advisor, Client Relationship Manager, Nicola Wealth

As a member of Nicola Wealth’s Planning Team in Toronto, Jessica leads business owners, high net worth individuals, and affluent families through an integrated wealth planning process. She helps her clients to understand the complexities of their current situation in order to effectively uncover opportunities and potential challenges ahead.

The dedicated advisory team at Nicola Wealth truly understands not only what is important to our clients but why the outcomes matter. Knowing that she plays an integral part in her clients’ goal achievements as part of a multi-disciplinary team provides her with great professional and personal satisfaction.

An honours graduate of the University of Western Ontario, Jessica holds the designations as a Certified Financial Planner (CFP), Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU), Chartered Investment Manager (CIM) and most recently has earned the Financial Enterprise Advisor (FEA) designation. She currently serves on the board of directors for the Conference for Advanced Life Underwriting (CALU).

Outside of her role as a wealth advisor, Jessica is active in the Toronto community volunteering with The Leacock Foundation, which provides extended learning opportunities for Toronto and South African youth in need, through literacy and other academic initiatives.
